Janet, This is just a quick blast-from-the-past. I hardly EVER ready the paper, but I happened to see it last week and saw your mother's obituary there. It brought back memories of us at People's Church (and that we always celebrated our May 16th and 17th borthdays together) . . . and I remembered your dad and how he could play ANYTHING on the piano by ear. such a long time ago. With any luck, your mom was in good health throughout her 91 years. I hope that you are able to keep these good memories alive and well throughout these upcoming holidays. My sympathies are with you.
