It is hard to imagine Congregation Beth Sholom without her. She was sassy and funny and had that amazing British accent that went so well with Phillies Baseball. May her memory be a blessing. Good bye dear Julie Tollin. with sorrow, Laura Levitt, I also send condolences from my father Irving Levitt.

Julie was like a family member to our family. We spent holidays together. We knew we could drop by to visit her without calling. We could count on having ice cream & tea. My children referred to her as Aunt Julie. They were closer to her than some of our family members. We will miss her. Rita
