Patricia Van Wieren

JAN 17, 1948 - DEC 16, 2022

Patricia Van Wieren of Wyoming, DE, formerly of Oakland, NJ, died December 16, 2022. Born in Franklin Lakes, NJ to Cornelius and Carolyn Anne Keastead Van Wieren, Patricia graduated cum laude from William Paterson College with a degree in communications, and then used her considerable writing and marketing skills in various posts in New Jersey including Prudential Financial in Newark and GAF Corporation in Wayne. Later she briefly worked as a realtor before relocating to Delaware where she edited Camden-Wyoming's newsletter and volunteered at Dover Public Library, helping with programming, publicity and press releases for their popular film program. She loved word games, films and reading — both books and tarot cards — as well as watching all three FBI shows and the nightly news. Patricia wanted no services, just burial next to her beloved older brother Jeffrey in Fairlawn Cemetery near Paterson, NJ.

Patricia belonged to a writing group that I belonged to...and she always made us laugh! May she now rest in peace.

I was saddened to hear of Patricia's passing. I met Patricia through my daughter. She was my daughter's neighbor and we enjoyed each other's company whenever I came to visit. I will always remember the three of us meeting for high tea and the great time we had and, the birthday cards we sent each other every year. I am thankful for the times I had with Patricia and may she rest in peace. Cheryl Trotter
