Georgeanna G. Moore's earthly journey ended on Friday, October 6, 2017, and began her new journey with the Lord. She was born on July 2, 1921, the youngest of nine children of the late George and Rebecca Grace.

She had a varied list of employment. During World War II, she worked in a munitions factory. Over the course of years, she and her husband, Raymond Moore, were the owners of two small businesses. Georgeanna especially enjoyed her outings with nieces, Diana Smith, and Phyllis Steele, plus their visits with WaWa Coffee, her favorite treat.

She was a life-long member of Ewell's St. Paul Methodist Church in Clayton, DE, and enjoyed attending church services even in her later years when health issues presented obstacles.
